

The Vince Chiarelli Combo

Vince Chiarelli comes from a bloodline of musical tradition. Starting when he was 18 months old, Vince showed everyone his singing ability. Not only has he inherited his grandfathers name, but is also keeping The Vince Chiarelli Combo name alive.

The Vince Chiarelli Combo is a continuing legacy of The Vince Chiarelli Combo from the 1950's through the 1970's. He has continued to make his voice heard by writing his own music, but also continuing to play the great songs written by his grandfather. Vince continues to play the Italian music that was taught to him by his grandfather. In addition to playing authentic Italian and Sicilian music, Vince plays classic standards, lounge music, and other popular hits from artists such as, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Tom Jones, and many more.
